

I am writing to ask the FCC not to lessen the rules on broadcast ownership. Continued vertical integration of these media giants only serves to limit the broadness of the messages we receive from the media. Please do not help make it worse.